

Sanitization sensation Dr. Godfrey Bachehie, head of the neonatal centre at Windsor Regional Hospital in Windsor, Ont., will be taking several units of the newly developed Lotus sanitizing system to hospitals in his native Ghana, a donation sponsored by the Windsor Rotary Club. The device, developed by Tersano Inc. of St. Catharines, Ont., converts oxygen in ordinary tap water to ozone, which can be used as a natural sanitizer.